

Virtual Grace Notes FAQ

What does this mean?

Due to the recent COVID-19 outbreak we decided that it is in the best interest of our guests to cancel the live, in person event and go virtual instead.

When is the virtual event?

It begins on Saturday, March 7th and ends on Wednesday, March 11th

What can I expect?

You'll be receiving an email including a link to mobile bidding on Friday. You'll be able to bid on all auction items, including Live Auction (once it goes live), with your phone or computer! We'll also introduce you to our keynote speaker, Raina Libadia Borsum, with a short video that includes a link to donate.

How are you raising funds?

Through the auction, via mobile bidding and through online donations. You may also mail a check to:

Attn: Grace Notes
Susan G. Komen Puget Sound
112 5th Ave N
Seattle, WA 98109

Why do you need funds?

As many of you know, breast cancer is the leading cause of cancer deaths among women in Washington, and every dollar we raise through Grace Notes saves lives. Grace Notes is the largest fundraiser for Komen Puget Sound and the funds raised are vital to the grantees that we serve. Each year, Komen's programs reach thousands of our state's most vulnerable people who struggle to access basic services.

I didn't pay for my ticket or table, what should I do?

We ask that if you haven't paid for your ticket or table yet that you please consider adding the cost to your donation, as every dollar counts. Unfortunately, cancelling the event with such short notice means that many expenses are non-refundable and the affiliate is out those dollars.
